

College Day

Monday 3 April 2023

Programme (provisional)

Chair: Dr Sarah Clarke, president, Royal College of Physicians

Fellows should note that the current president, Dr Sarah Clarke, will remain as president throughout the proceedings, and afterwards. If a new president is elected, they will take up office and give Faith at the annual general meeting of fellows on Tuesday 5 September 2023, when Dr Clarke would leave office.

12.30–13.15 Pre-registered fellows to collect ballot papers to vote in person for the presidential election

13.30–14.00 Special general meeting – presidential election
Admission to fellows only
(Dorchester Library or virtual access)

14.00 Refreshments

15.30–16.30 FitzPatrick lecture
170 years of Amyloid: a fascinating journey
Professor Helen J Lachmann, Professor of medicine and honorary consultant nephrologist, University College London & Royal Free Hospital London NHS Foundation Trust
(Wolfson lecture theatre – admission to fellows only or virtual access for all)

16.30 Refreshments

17.00–18.00 Samuel Gee lecture
Where art thou coeliac disease?
Professor David S Sanders, consultant in gastroenterology, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
(Wolfson lecture theatre – admission to fellows only or virtual access for all)

18.00 Refreshments

18.30 Announcement of result of the presidential election
Admission to fellows only
(Dorchester Library or virtual access)

19.00 for
19.30 Dinner for pre-booked fellows (lounge suits)
(Osler Room)

In case of queries about:

- > the special general meeting – presidential election, please contact Simon Land, head of professional governance, by emailing simon.land@rcp.ac.uk
- > the lectures and booking, please contact conferences@rcp.ac.uk